

Stamped Designs Mushroom Class

Thinking of You Card

Distress ink pads: Fired Brick and Frayed Burlap

1. Using a foam dauber, apply Fired Brick ink to the left side of the red mushroom tops and Frayed Burlap to the stems. Assemble the mushrooms as shown with wet glue.
2. Using scissors, wave cut the small piece of taupe card, then layer to the lower half of the light blue die cut piece. Layer to the black die cut piece.
3. Layer the embossed piece to the black piece then to the front of the base card.
4. Layer the die cut layered piece as shown, then attach the mushrooms as shown. The large mushroom the back is attached with wet glue and the other 2 with foam squares.
5. Attach the words piece with foam squares.

Hello Card

Distress Ink pad: Frayed Burlap

1. Apply Frayed Burlap ink to the cream colored mushroom pieces. Build the mushrooms as shown with wet glue.
2. Layer the green piece to the large black piece, then to the front of the base card.
3. Layer the plaid piece to the small black piece, then attach to the card.
4. Attach the mushrooms with foam squares.
5. Attach the red strip as shown and then the hello piece with wet glue.

Hello Card

Distress ink pads: Peacock Feathers and Brushed Corduroy

1. Stencil the light teal piece with the diamond stencil and the Peacock Feathers ink. Layer to the black piece and then to the front of the base card.
2. Apply Brushed Corduroy ink to the mushroom stems. Assemble the mushrooms with wet glue.

Stamped Designs Mushroom Class

3. Attach the blue oval to the front of the card, then position the leaf piece as shown and attach with wet glue.
4. Attach the mushrooms with foam squares.
5. Stamp the hello word as shown.